Viceroy Says Killing of American Missionaries Had No Connection With Boycott.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 15 .-No boycott; no race feeling, but a mere personal quarrel, was the cause of the missionaries recently at Lienchow, in day to Secretary Root by Sir Chentung day to Secretary Root by Sir Chentung Liang Cheng, the Chinese minister here. The report, which is from the viceroy of the Provinces of Kwangtung and Kwangsi, says in part:

"The American consul at Canton is inclined to connect this affair with the boycott movement with the view of making the most of the situation. It was found that the trouble originated in a standing dispute between Dr. Machie, and the Catholic converts, On October 28, a festival was being cleibrated outside the city of Lienchow near a hospital comnected with the American missionary
